IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,
v.

[4] JORGE VELASCO MELLA,

Defendant.

Criminal No.08-36(PJB)

Plea Agreement

Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A) and (B) FRCP

TO THE HONORABLE Court:

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through its attorneys, Rosa Emilia Rodríguez-Vélez, United States Attorney for the District of Puerto Rico, María A. Domínguez, First Assistant United States Attorney, and Ernesto López Soltero, Assistant United States Attorney for said District, together with William Welch, Chief of the Public Integrity Section of the Department of Justice, Peter Koski, Ethan Levisohn, and Daniel Schwager, Trial Attorneys for said Section, and the defendant, [4] JORGE VELASCO-MELLA, and the defendant's counsel, María H. Sandoval, Esq., pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(B) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and state to this Honorable Court, that they have reached an agreement, the terms and conditions of which are as follows:

1. COUNTS TO WHICH DEFENDANT PLEADS GUILTY

The defendant, [4] JORGE VELASCO-MELLA, agrees to plead guilty to COUNT ONE of the Superseding Indictment, charging the defendant with engaging in a conspiracy to knowingly and willfully commit offenses against the United States, that is, to violate the Federal Election Campaign Act, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371. The United States agrees to move to dismiss counts two, three, and four of the Superseding Indictment after the defendant has been sentenced.

2. PENALTIES

The maximum penalty for the offense charged in COUNT ONE of the indictment is a term of imprisonment of not more than five (5) years and/or a fine of not more than Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00), and a term of supervised release of not more than three (3) years, in addition to any term of incarceration.

3. SPECIAL MONETARY ASSESSMENT

At the time of the signing of this Plea Agreement the defendant will pay a special assessment of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per count, as required by Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013(a).

4. FINES AND/OR RESTITUTION

The Court may, pursuant to Section 5E1.2(l) of the Sentencing Guidelines, Policy Statements, Application, and Background Notes, order the defendant to pay a fine sufficient to reimburse the government for the costs of any imprisonment and/or supervised release ordered and also the Court may impose restitution. As part of this Plea Agreement, the defendant agrees to execute a financial statement to the United States (OBD Form 500). The United States will make no recommendations as to the imposition of fines.

5. RULE 11(c)(1)(B) WARNINGS

The defendant is aware that the defendant's sentence is within the sound discretion of the sentencing judge, but the same may be imposed following the United States Sentencing Guidelines, Policy Statements, Application, and Background Notes as advisory to the imposition of sentence. The defendant is aware that the Court has jurisdiction and authority to impose any sentence within the statutory maximum set for the offense to which the defendant pleads guilty. If the Court should impose a sentence up to the maximum established by statute, the defendant cannot, for that reason alone, withdraw a guilty plea, and will remain bound to fulfill all of the obligations under this Plea Agreement.

6. ADVISORY NATURE OF THE SENTENCING GUIDELINES

The defendant is aware that pursuant to the decisions issued on January 12, 2005, by the Supreme Court of the United States in the cases of United States v. Booker and United States v. Fanfan, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the Sentencing Guidelines are no longer mandatory and must be considered effectively advisory. However, the parties also agree that the District Court should use the 2003 Sentencing Guidelines if they are more favorable to the defendant.

7. SENTENCING GUIDELINE CALCULATIONS

The United States and the defendant have utilized the following Sentencing Guidelines calculations to enter into this plea agreement based on the 2007 edition of the Sentencing Guidelines. The calculations corresponding to defendant's conduct with regard to COUNT ONE of the indictment are as follows:

SENTENCING GUIDELINES CALCULATION TABLE
BASE OFFENSE LEVEL [U.S.S.G. §2C1.8]	8
SPECIFIC OFFENSE CHARACTERISTICS [§ 2B1.1 Loss Calculation (Between $30,000 and $70,000)]	6
FOREIGN SOURCE [§ 2C1.8(b)(2)(A)]	2
ACCEPTANCE OF RESPONSIBILITY [§ 3E1.1(b)]	- 3

SENTENCING GUIDELINES CALCULATION TABLE
TOTAL OFFENSE LEVEL (Imprisonment range)	13 (12-18)

8. SENTENCE RECOMMENDATION

The United States agrees to recommend that the defendant be sentenced to the low end of the applicable guideline range, specifically twelve months.

9. NO FURTHER ADJUSTMENTS OR DEPARTURES

The defendant expressly reserves his right to argue that USSG § 2C1.8(b)(2)(A) does not apply. The government expressly reserves the right to argue the application of the section. The United States and the defendant agree that no further adjustments or departures to the defendant's total offense level shall be sought by the parties, other than as contemplated in this paragraph.

10. NO STIPULATION AS TO CRIMINAL HISTORY CATEGORY

The parties do not stipulate any assessment as to the defendant's Criminal History Category.

11. THE PARTIES' RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

The United States and the defendant reserve the right to carry out their responsibilities under guidelines sentencing. Specifically, the United States and the defendant reserve their rights: (a) to bring their versions of the facts of this case including their files and any investigative files to the attention of the probation office in connection with that office's preparation of a pre-sentence report; (b) to dispute sentencing factors or facts material to sentencing; and, (c) to seek resolution of such factors or facts in conference with opposing counsel and the United States Probation Office.

12. SATISFACTION WITH COUNSEL

The defendant represents to the Court to be satisfied with counsel, María H. Sandoval, Esq., and indicates that counsel has rendered effective legal assistance.

13. RIGHTS SURRENDERED BY DEFENDANT THROUGH GUILTY PLEA

Defendant understands that by entering into this agreement, defendant surrenders certain rights as provided in this agreement. Defendant understands that the right of criminal defendants include the following:

- (a) If the defendant had persisted in a plea of not guilty to the charges, defendant would have the right to a speedy jury trial with the assistance of counsel. The trial may be conducted by a judge sitting without a jury if the defendant, the United States and the judge agree;
- (b) If a jury trial is conducted, the jury would be composed of twelve lay persons selected at random. The defendant and defendant's attorney would assist in selecting the jurors by removing prospective jurors for cause where actual bias or other disqualification is shown, or by removing prospective jurors without cause by exercising peremptory challenges. The jury would have to agree, unanimously, before it could return a verdict of either guilty or not guilty. The jury would be instructed that the defendant is presumed innocent, that it could not convict the defendant unless, after hearing all the evidence, it was persuaded of the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, and that it was to consider each charge separately;
- (c) If a trial is held by the judge without a jury, the judge would find the facts and, after hearing all the evidence and considering each count separately, determine whether or not the evidence established the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt;
- (d) At a trial, the United States would be required to present its witnesses and other evidence against the defendant. The defendant would be able to confront those witnesses and defendant's attorney would be able to cross-examine them. In turn, the defendant could present witnesses and other evidence in defendant's own behalf. If the witnesses for the defendant would not appear voluntarily, defendant could require their attendance through the subpoena power of the Court;

- (e) At a trial, the defendant could rely on the privilege against self-incrimination to decline to testify, and no inference of guilty could be drawn from his refusal to testify. If the defendant desired to do so, the defendant could testify in his own behalf.

14. STATEMENT OF FACTS

The accompanying Statement of Facts signed by the defendant is hereby incorporated into this Plea Agreement. Defendant adopts the Statement of Facts and agrees that the facts therein are accurate and, had the matter proceeded to trial, that the United States would have proven those facts beyond a reasonable doubt.

15. LIMITATIONS OF PLEA AGREEMENT

This Plea Agreement binds only the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Puerto Rico, the Public Integrity Section of the Department of Justice, and the defendant; it does not bind any other federal district, state or local authorities. Furthermore, the defendant is fully aware that the Court is not bound by this Plea Agreement, including but not limited as to: advisory sentencing guidelines calculations, stipulations, and/or sentence recommendations.

16. ENTIRETY OF PLEA AGREEMENT

This written agreement constitutes the complete Plea Agreement between the United States, the defendant, and the defendant's counsel. The United States has made no promises or representations except as set forth in writing in this Plea Agreement and deny the existence of any other term and conditions not stated herein.

17. AMENDMENTS TO PLEA AGREEMENT

No other promises, terms or conditions will be entered unless in writing and signed by all parties.

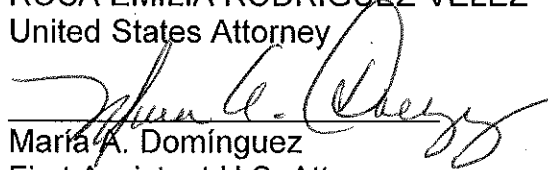

18. WAIVER OF APPEAL

The defendant hereby agrees that if this Honorable Court accepts this Plea Agreement and sentences him according to its terms, conditions, and recommendations, the defendant waives and surrenders his right to appeal the judgment and sentence in this case. However, the parties also agree that if the Court applies the foreign source enhancement, corresponding to USSG § 2C1.8(b)(2)(A), that the defendant shall be permitted to pursue an appeal of the sentence imposed in accordance with that enhancement.

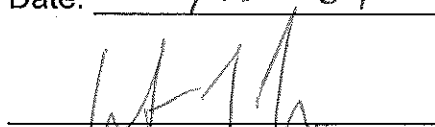

19. VOLUNTARINESS OF GUILTY PLEA

The defendant acknowledges that no threats have been made against the defendant and that the defendant is pleading guilty freely and voluntarily because the defendant is guilty.
